

How has our study of the book of Acts been impacting your confidence in the Holy Spirit to engage seekers (see Jer. 29:11-14) with the Gospel of Christ? Where do you go to find those who are seeking truth and a possible understanding of the things of God? What have you done to [“cooperate with God in the process of helping...”] help others examine the scriptures to discover Jesus within them? It’s true, evangelism is a process, not, so much, an event. It’s downright fun to help people discover a relationship with God, by faith in the person of Jesus as he is revealed in Scripture.

Have a _____ to engage people with the good news that is in Jesus! (Acts 17:2-3)

Use _____ to engage people in talk about the possibility of knowing God by faith, in the person of Jesus.

Those who are _____, examine the scriptures to discover the truth for themselves.

Personal Application and Group Interaction

1. What is your experience in reasoning with people about Jesus from the scriptures? (Acts 17:2-3)
2. What does talking about Jesus from the scriptures do for your own mind, soul, and spirit? (v.4; 2 Timothy 3:14-17)
3. What have you done and who has prepared you to reason with people from the scriptures?
4. What will you do to be better prepared to reason with people from the scriptures?
5. What are you doing to cultivate your soul by eagerly examining the scriptures with others? (17:10-12)

Engaging Seekers

Acts 17:1-15

Pastor John
August 5, 2018

