

How do you know?

Galatians & Ephesians

Pastor John
June 16, 2013

Have you ever written an epistle (a long letter on a serious subject)?

Has anyone ever written one to you? What is your preferred means of communication when you want to address a serious matter at a time when you are unable to do so face to face? The apostle Paul had some pretty heavy issues on his mind when he wrote his epistles. I wonder how our faith would have fared if he had access to young churches via instant messaging? Let's see what he had to say to a couple of those churches and what we should learn from his Spirit-inspired insights.

Galatians

Theme:

Purpose, Occasion and Background:

What was on Paul's mind when he wrote to the Galatian church?

Highlights:

Personal Application:

Ephesians

Theme:

Purpose, Occasion, and Background:

What kind of relationship did Paul have with this church? When did he write them and why?

Highlights:

Application:

- What's in this letter for us?
- What does this letter contribute to my understanding of...
 1. My relationship to Christ
 2. My salvation
 3. God's will for my life
 4. God's will for the body of Christ
 5. God's will for our church
 6. How to handle the things with which we wrestle