

I have to admit, this is one of those spectacular miracles that I wish I could have witnessed first-hand. How did He do it? If it would have been a televised event, how many times do you think it would have replayed on DVRs? How did he turn five loaves and two fish into enough food to feed 5,000-10,000 “hungry” people and still have enough to send them home with leftovers? Why did He do it? What did He want His followers to learn? I’m still in awe and wonder. Aren’t you?

Personal Application and Interaction

1. What's the biggest gathering you've ever been a part of for a meal?
2. Reflectively reread Mark 6:30-44 a few times. What do you think was uppermost on the mind of Jesus?
3. The disciples suggested to Jesus that He send the crowd into the "countryside and villages" to "buy themselves something to eat." Why did He tell them, "You give them something to eat," and what's in that interaction for us today?
4. Ok, use some sanctified imagination; what do you picture was happening as Jesus blessed the lad's lunch, broke it, and gave it to the disciples to pass out to the crowd in amazing abundance?
5. What have you seen God do with your "five loaves and two fish"?
6. Give our text a title that reflects what you're taking away from this study.
