

It's been awhile since I've heard someone evoke the acronym, "KISS." It's a good reminder for all of us who think we have something important to communicate. The good news of the gospel is simple. It's not complicated. Everyone needs a Savior...someone to save us from ourselves. The cross of Christ is God's sole solution for the guilt of sin. So, put your trust in Jesus who went to the cross for you. It's that simple. It's all about a relationship with God based on personal trust in Him. Amen.

So why do we sometimes make it difficult for people to turn to God?

Hey, I paid my dues!

Let me think this through

OK, I can live with that.

Let me be perfectly clear...

Personal Application and Group Interaction

1. How has God surprised you or gotten your attention by what He's been doing lately?
2. Why do you think we sometimes miss what God is doing right before our very eyes?
3. How was the early church making it difficult for the Gentiles to turn to God (15:19)? How do we sometimes muddy the water for people to receive and follow Christ? How can we/you do a better job of presenting Christ to people?
4. In a sentence or two, what is salvation's bottom line?
5. What are you doing to enjoy opportunities to share Christ and the message of salvation with the people in your sphere of influence?

Let's Be Clear...
