

Personal Application and Group Interaction

What's your favorite kind of music? Name a few songs on your listening device. Where are you most likely to be "plugged in"?

How has God used the Psalms in your life? What are your favorite psalms?

How was it that certain psalms came alive in you?

How do Psalms and Proverbs work in your everyday life? When are you likely to go to them? How are you likely to handle it when you don't get the kind of answers you were seeking when you opened the book? (Please be specific about these encounters with God in Psalms and Proverbs).

The refrain of Ecclesiastes is repeated over and over again: everything is meaningless. What do you personally take away from this piece of wisdom literature as a follower of Christ?

Our culture is obsessed with the erotic. What possible value does the Song of Songs have in the lives of followers of Christ? How does it challenge you?

The Songs We Sing

Psalms – Song of Songs
Pastor John
4/14/2013

The songs we sing shape our lives. They bring back all sorts of memories and replay deep emotions. They remind us of our hopes and dreams. They sooth our souls and lift us to the heights of heaven. The songs in the center of our Bible are our songs for they are the song of those who follow Him.

Psalms

Songs from the heart:

Categories:

How to read the Psalms:

Proverbs: “common and uncommon sense”

A Godly parent’s urgent plea:

The message of Proverbs:

How to read Proverbs:

Ecclesiastes: “Everything is meaningless....”

The Author:

The purpose:

The theme:

The big picture:

Song of Songs: love as it is meant to be

The singers:

An unusual song for our love-obsessed generation:

How shall we read this song?

Taking this song to heart: