

Do you ever feel like you're being watched? Well, in all likelihood, you are. From drones, to body cameras, to security cameras wherever people shop or gather. While it can be a bit creepy, that fact that people are watching intentionally or coincidentally, also presents us with opportunity and responsibility. Consider Herod and the things that shaped what he was hearing.

Who's listening?

Someone with...

Who's talking?

Someone with...

Personal Application and Interaction

1. What stirred Herod's interest in Jesus? What are people hearing about Jesus because of His work among us?
2. What temporarily derailed Herod's interest in Jesus? What might we learn from this?
3. What governed Herod's conscience? What governed John's conscience? What would those who know you well say governs your conscience?
4. Why did Herod like to listen to John especially in light of the fact that John made life so difficult for him?
5. What insights did you glean from our text about ministering to people who, like Herod, are far from God?

Someone's Listening

Mark 6:14-29

Pastor John
February 5, 2017

