

So, we've been addressing the question, "Why Christmas"?
Where did it begin? How did it develop such momentum, loyalty, and traditions? What will we do with the real and fake promises that surround it? The run up to the holiday seems to get longer every year. Yet, set against the backdrop of God's history of salvation, our preparations are but for a pleasant moment. The coming of the Savior flows out of the heart of God. What have you done and what are you doing with Jesus?

Personal Application and Interaction

1. How do you know if you can believe someone?
2. Why do we find it hard to believe that God truly loves the world?
3. How have you experienced the reality of God's love for you in Christ?
4. How do you think God measures the effectiveness of your belief in Him?
5. What would you say to someone who said, "Well, I know I'm not going to heaven"?
6. What have you decided to do with Jesus?
