

I find myself praying a familiar prayer for people. I pray they will lean on the Lord, turn to Him and call on Him. Reflect for a moment on a time when you called on Jesus. What did you experience? Did you find Him to be receptive? Were you keenly aware of His presence? Where did He take you, what did He show you, and how did you know you were following Him through it all? What difference has it made in your life when you've called on Him?

Call on Him

His calling

The called

Personal Application and Interaction

1. Think about this: blind Bart in our text was aggravating the crowd as he called out to Jesus. But it worked for him. What do you think God wants you to pick up on from this?
2. Under what circumstances are you likely to call on Jesus?
3. If suddenly, right now, Jesus turned to you and asked you, “What do you want me to do for you?” what would you tell Him?
4. What other expressions come to mind when you think of calling on the Lord?
5. How did this account of “faith” and “following” (v.52) touch your soul?

Who's calling?
